Re: Contender Development (CDI) dba
Contender America
Case 10-CA-378814

Dear Ms. Lord:

The charge that you filed in this case on January 12, 2026 has been docketed as case number 10-CA-378814. This charge has not yet been assigned to an investigator. This letter outlines the required information and evidence you initially need to provide, explains your right to be represented, and provides a brief explanation of our procedures, including how to submit documents to the NLRB.

Required Information and Evidence: As the party who filed the charge in this case, it is your responsibility to present evidence in support of your allegations. Accordingly, please submit the following information to our office using the Agency's e-filing system at www.nlr.gov no later than close of business on Wednesday, January 28, 2026.

- A chronological outline or timeline of the relevant sequence of events and exchanges (verbal and in person communications) related to the charge allegations. Include the names and titles of any involved Union and/or Employer representatives;
- Relevant documentation related to the allegations in the charge as well as supporting communications and documents such as letters, e-mails, text messages, phone records, etc.; and
- A list of the witnesses you intend to present, their contact information (e-mail and phone) and a brief summary of each witness's testimony.

This information must be returned to this office by Wednesday, January 28, 2026. Please e-file the information as "Evidence" and select "Charging Party" as the Participant Type when prompted. If the above information is not received by then, your charge may be subject to dismissal because of your failure to cooperate in the investigation. If the charge is dismissed, you will receive a dismissal letter. The charged party will also receive a copy of the dismissal letter.

Right to Representation: You have the right to be represented by an attorney or other representative in any proceeding before us. If you choose to be represented, your representative must notify us in writing of this fact as soon as possible by completing Form NLRB-4701, Notice of Appearance. This form is available on our website, www.nlr.gov, or from an NLRB office upon your request.

If you are contacted by someone about representing you in this case, please be assured that no organization or person seeking your business has any "inside knowledge" or favored relationship with the National Labor Relations Board. Their knowledge regarding this proceeding was only obtained through access to information that must be made available to any member of the public under the Freedom of Information Act.

Preservation of all Potential Evidence: Please be mindful of your obligation to preserve all relevant documents and electronically stored information (ESI) in this case, and to take all steps necessary to avoid the inadvertent loss of information in your possession, custody or control. Relevant information includes, but is not limited to, paper documents and all ESI (e.g. SMS text messages, electronic documents, emails, and any data created by proprietary software tools) related to the above-captioned case.

Prohibition on Recording Affidavit Interviews: If affidavits are taken in this case, please note it is the policy of the General Counsel to prohibit affiants from recording the interview conducted by Board agents when subscribing Agency affidavits. Such recordings may impede the Agency's ability to safeguard the confidentiality of the affidavit itself, protect the privacy of the affiant and potentially compromise the integrity of the Region's investigation.

Correspondence: All documents submitted to the Region regarding your case MUST be filed through the Agency's website, www.nlr.gov. This includes all formal pleadings, briefs, as well as affidavits, documentary evidence, and position statements. The Agency requests all evidence submitted electronically to be in the form it is normally used and maintained in the course of business (i.e., native format). Where evidence submitted electronically is not in native format, it should be submitted in a manner that retains the essential functionality of the native format (i.e., in a machine-readable and searchable electronic format).

If you have questions about the submission of evidence or expect to deliver a large quantity of electronic records, please email R10-Investigation@nlrb.gov. If you have emailed and not received a response, you may contact the Information Officer whose telephone number is (404) 331-2896. If you cannot e-file your documents, you must provide a statement explaining why you do not have access to the means for filing electronically or why filing electronically would impose an undue burden.

In addition, this Region will be issuing case-related correspondence and documents, including complaints, compliance specifications, dismissal letters, deferral letters, and withdrawal letters, electronically to the email address you provide. To ensure that you receive important case-related correspondence, you must provide this office with your preferred email address. These steps will ensure that you receive correspondence faster and at a significantly lower cost to the taxpayer. If there is some reason you are unable to receive correspondence via email, please contact this office to discuss the circumstances that prevent you from using email.

Controlled Unclassified Information (CUI): This National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) proceeding may contain Controlled Unclassified Information (CUI). Subsequent information in this proceeding may also constitute CUI. National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) regulations at 32 CFR Part 2002 apply to all executive branch agencies that designate or handle information that meets the standards for CUI.
