Lights, Camera, Action: Boost Your Real Estate Game with Video!

Are you camera-shy but know you need to up your video game? You're not alone! Many agents feel uncomfortable in front of the lens, but in today's digital age, video has become a game-changer in real estate marketing..

The numbers don't lie – video marketing is a powerful tool in real estate. Did you know that listings with video receive a staggering 403% more inquiries than those without? Moreover, 73% of homeowners prefer to list with agents who use video. By incorporating video into your marketing strategy, you're not just keeping up with trends; you're positioning yourself for success in a competitive market.

David Jones – Welcome to the newest addition to our Lowcountry team – David Jones! This isn't just another real estate agent; this is a true Lowcountry legend in the making.

Originally hailing from Dublin, Ireland, David's journey is anything but ordinary. After two decades as a PGA golf professional in New York, he traded city greens for the stunning landscapes of Hilton Head. Since 2015, he's been soaking up every inch of local knowledge, transforming from a newcomer to a bona-fide Island Ambassador.

From golf community expertise to project management skills, David brings a unique blend of professional prowess that makes him a powerhouse in our Maxey Blackstream family.

Welcome aboard, David! We can't wait to see the magic you'll create!

Lake Keowee Office Update

Our Lake Keowee office, at 3314 Walhalla Highway in Six Mile, has moved from a construction zone to the finishing touches phase!

Our talented designer, Ashley James, is putting the finishing touches in place with furnishings and a few additional finishes.

Ashley anticipates that the office will be ready for agents about mid-Feb and we can't wait to see the finished product!

Just in time for the Spring lake season, the opening of this office will put our agents in one of the best locations to serve the Upstate lakes region.
