14	2/14/2025	Annette Wrenn was hired as Support & Operations Manager, but within her first week, she and another employee were being trained on the Marketing Director's social media duties, and a later report showed her official responsibilities included tracking business metrics and managing the BS Academy website previously handled by the Director of Marketing.	Sexual Favoritism / Age Discrimination / Constructive Discharge: The swift and systematic transfer of the Director of Marketing's social media responsibilities as well as Blackstream Real Estate Academy website management and salary components to Annette Wrenn, a younger, favored subordinate and CEO Michael Mumma's paramour, provides direct evidence of unlawful paramour preference and age-based disparate treatment. This pattern of undermining supervisory authority and transferring job duties constitutes a hostile work environment and serves as a primary basis for a claim of constructive discharge.
